To provide a forum for the identification and discussion of public administration issues, and to increase public understanding on matters of importance and relevance to public administration, a semi-annual refereed journal, Public Administration and Policy – An Asia-Pacific Journal, jointly sponsored by the Hong Kong Public Administration Association and SPEED, has been published from 2012.

“We are delighted to work closely with SPEED as a co-publisher, and have invited Dr Jack Lo, Director of SPEED, and Professor Peter Yuen, Dean of CPCE to be members of our editorial board,” said

Dr Peter K.W. Fong, President, Hong Kong Public Administration Association at the joint collaboration signing ceremony held in February 2012.

“We are honoured to be the co-publisher of the journal which provides an excellent platform for academics around the world to discuss issues, problems and solutions leading to improvement of public services,” said Dr Jack Lo at the same occasion.

The 2012 edition of the journal is available now, with articles contributed by scholars from various countries and regions, as well as an article by the Chief Executive of the HKSAR, Mr Leung Chun-ying.
